Important notice

Failure to disclose material facts, for example any driver's previous claims history, or not informing us if a fact is incorrect could mean that your policy is not valid and claims may not be paid. If the policy is invalidated this could result in difficulty getting insurance in the future. Material facts are facts that might influence how we assess and whether we accept your proposal. If you are not sure if a fact is material you should tell us. Liberty Insurance reserves the right to decline any Proposal. Full details of your cover appear in the policy document. For a copy of this document contact our customer services team.

The own damage excess applicable to the policy is €300 for each and every claim. This is the amount that you will have to pay towards any claim that is covered under the policy for loss of or damage to your vehicle. There is no cover under the policy for personal effects stowed in the vehicle.
